

I'm having trouble with the header, which I want to have a background/photo. I have an image on there right now but there are white margins above and below it that I cannot get rid of. I was just wondering if there's something missing or if there's different code for the header to have an image that I'm missing. Thank you!